

MEMBERSHIP APPLICATION INSTRUCTIONS

1. Membership in the Vinyl Siding Institute, Inc. (VSI, Inc.) is limited to individual firms, partnerships, or corporations engaged in the manufacture and marketing of vinyl and/or polymeric siding; and suppliers of raw materials, equipment and services related to vinyl and polymeric siding products.
2. Please complete the appropriate VSI, Inc. membership application and return via fax to (202) 587-5127.
3. Accompanying the application, please attach a letter, on company letterhead, stating how your company currently relates to the vinyl and/or polymeric siding industry.
4. Your membership application and letter will be reviewed and approved by the VSI, Inc. Board of Directors.
5. VSI, Inc. dues/assessments for new members are based on sales of vinyl and polymeric siding or products and services to the vinyl siding industry.
6. After membership approval by the VSI, Inc. Board of Directors, dues and relevant assessments must be paid before membership is active. New members will thereafter fall into the annual cycle.
7. If you have any questions regarding the membership application procedure or application form, please contact the VSI President & CEO, Jerry Y. Huntley at jhuntley@vinylsiding.org or (202) 587-5101.

Thank you!
